POSTPONES TALK OF MORE SALES TAX

City Council Buys New Police Car

The Elba City Council met Tuesday night without Mayor Sam Sawyer, who was out of town attending another function. All councilmen were present. Mayor Pro-Tem Charles Ellis presided over the meeting.

The meeting opened with Mr. Grady Lanier of Alabama Electric Co-op presenting the council with copies of a 30 year franchise. The franchise would allow Alabama Electric to continue servicing the Elba Water and Electric Board with electricity. The Board several months ago signed an agreement to purchase electricity from AEC and this franchise is only to allow the co-op to deliver the "juice" to the city facilities.

Consulting Engineer, Henry Padgett reported that the city could not use indirect cost to compute percentages for a federal grant on the airport. This matter was referred to the city attorney because the city had paid TASK Consultants several thousand dollars to get the figures with the understanding they could be used.

A new police car was purchased from Ed Shering Ford in Enterprise on a lay bid of $3776.96 after the council decided to purchase without air-conditioning or radio. Ronnie Vaughan had made a motion to purchase two cars but it died for lack of a second. Vaughan opposed buying the car without the air-conditioning and radio. He then voted against buying the car but the motion carried.

Ronnie Vaughan made a motion to approve a resolution commending all city employees for the fine job they did during the floods and Hurricane Eloise. This motion passed unanimously.

Vaughan was also assigned the responsibility of getting a car ready for the local homecoming parade.

The council discussed the matter of the city paying for the cleaning of the uniforms for the police department. A motion was made to table this matter until the next meeting. Vaughan opposed but the motion carried.

A letter was read from Mr. W. L. Brunson concerning flooding in the area behind his home in Brookside. This was turned over to the street superintendent for study.

Police Chief Johnston reported that the city has no additional policemen under the CEBA program. The government will pay their salary but Elba must maintain the same number of regular officers to remain eligible. Johnston also reported on a new plan whereby his department checks on people living alone. Each morning those people so desiring the service will be called. If for some reason there is no answer, the officers will go to the home and see if the person needs help.

A group of parents connected with the Little League football team appeared before the council concerning getting their program under the recreation center area next year if facilities are prepared.

The agenda called for a discussion of an additional sales tax in Elba but the matter was tabled until the next meeting without any discussion.

A request was made for the banners heralding the Marching Tigers Band to be placed across the streets this week and remain until after Nov. 8th.

This was approved and City Clerk Jack Prescott said it would be done.

A motion was made to pay the bills when the money was available and the council adjourned.

RESOLUTION HONORS EMPLOYEES

A resolution issued jointly by the City of Elba and the Elba Light and Water Board commended all employees for a job well done in both the spring floods and following Hurricane Eloise.

The resolution read in part: NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved, by the Mayor and the City of Elba and by the Light and Water Board of the City of Elba, that the Mayor, the City Council, and the Light and Water Board of the City of Elba does hereby express its deepest appreciation and its most sincere commendation to the employees of the City of Elba and to the employees of the Light and Water Department for their services and devotion to their respective jobs.

The resolution was signed by the City Clerk, Mayor, Councilmen, and members of the Water and Electric Board.

COURTHOUSE TO CLOSE MONDAY

Courthouse offices will be closed on Monday, October 27 in observance of Veteran's Day, according to Probate Judge James L. Sawyer.

Judge Sawyer also reminds businesses that October 31 is the deadline for purchasing privilege licenses.

Comer Tells Way To Eufaula

In a recent telephone interview with Eufaula coach Ed Comer, he gave the following directions on what he considers to be the easiest way to get to Eufaula.

Go to New Brockton, turn left on Highway 122 (Clayton) and continue until you meet Highway 51 North.

Travel 51 through Arton, Clon, Louisville and into Clayton.

In Clayton, turn right on Highway 30; it will take you into Eufaula. At end of 30, take a left, and you will go into downtown Eufaula.

Your best bet then would be to stop and ask directions to stadium, although you may see stadium lights if you continue through business districts.

Elba School Sets Date For

Carnival

The Elba Elementary School will have its annual Halloween Carnival, Thursday night, October 30, from 5-7 p.m.

Activities planned for the carnival include: Elan Bags, Fish Pond, Cake Walk, Bowling, Ring Toss, Dart Throw, Horror House, Hay Ride, and Flea Market.

Homemade cakes, candies, and sandwiches will be available, and the kitchen will also provide short orders.

Come out and enjoy this event with your children.

Police Offer Public "Project Help"

Elba Police Chief has announced PROJECT HELP for persons living alone and others who desire help. The program will entail members of the police department calling the home of the participating person early each morning to assure everything is alright. If upon calling the officer gets no answer, a police car will be dispatched to check on the home and see if the person needs medical or other help. There will be no charge for this additional service.

Mrs. Wallace Says Thanks To People

Mrs. Cornelia Wallace issued a letter of thanks to the people of Elba and Coffee County just before leaving for a trip to Europe with her husband, Governor George C. Wallace.

The letter is printed on Page 7 of THE ELBA CLIPPER. The letter does not have a "paid" line at the bottom because it is not a political ad, but the space is paid for by Mrs. Wallace herself.

MS Drive To Be Held Sunday

A Multiple Sclerosis campaign will be conducted in Elba this Sunday afternoon, beginning at 2:30 p.m.

Mrs. Mable Lawless is the Area Chairman. Multiple Sclerosis is a continuing, disabling disease of the brain and spinal cord which causes paralysis and other disturbances of nerve impulses which control such bodily functions as walking, talking and seeing. Severe tremors and extreme weakness are common.

Services for patients served by the Central Alabama Chapter include medicine, guidance through the Multiple Sclerosis Evaluation Clinic in Birmingham, clinical programs, counseling sessions for patients and families, and comprehensive care on a local and county level. These services are without charge.

Elba Float To Feature Girls

Elba will have a float in the parade Saturday in Dothan. The parade is traditionally held on the final day of the week-long Peanut Festival celebration.

Riding the float will be Miss Elba, Little Miss Elba, four other Elba High School girls, Miss Kingston, Miss Zion Chapel, and Miss New Brockton.

The three girls from the neighboring communities are riding at the invitation of the Elba City Council which felt these people are as much a part of Elba as those attending school in Elba.

BRAINSTORMS

With Ferrin Cox

People say some interesting things when we stop to listen. One day recently I spent several hours in the courtroom just listening to a case and to the side discussions. Many amusing things are said during the course of trials as any lawyer or judge can verify. This trip I heard a conversation between some lawyers and a judge. They were settling a case out of court and needed the judge to approve the settlement. One part of the case included a payment of $5,000 and the judge wanted to know how they arrived at that figure. One lawyer quickly spoke up a bit louder than he thought and said, "cause it is easy to figure my third when no fractions are involved!" Every person in the courtroom heard the exchange and it brought down the house.

If you see Sheriff Neil Grantham or any of the deputies, ask them about their latest escape. The story is that the man left left here and went to Geneva County where he had a church with preparations made for a wedding. Our departed friend helped himself to the cake and punch it seems. Only after the crowd began getting larger did he grab another piece of cake and return to the house.

The City Council had on the agenda Tuesday night a discussion of an additional 1c sales tax. The discussion was postponed for two weeks but will come up again for sure. None of us likes taxes, but it doesn't take a smart person to see that the City must have additional funds or do some drastic cutting back on spending. When we start talking about cutting back, however, there are half a dozen ways suggested, but hard to get any mutual agreement. Some suggest cutting back on employees - when people are going to the council demanding more road repair, more police protection, more recreation, etc. Others want to cut back on vehicles - again it is hard to cut back on transportation when services are demanded. Others suggest doing it "like in the old days," whatever that means. Others say get it from the Water & Electric Department. However, in my opinion, to do this will mean my and your electricity will have to cost more. The problem is complex, but it is a problem and someone has got to solve it. If the City Council postpones action now, it will just be harder on the next council twelve months from now.

Senator Sid McDonald of Arab has laid the blame on Lt. Governor Jerry Beasley for the poor legislative showing in the recent regular session. This is not the first time we have heard this kind of talk. Beasley plans to run for Governor next time and is apparently spending too much time gathering votes and support for that venture to do his present job in Montgomery. Shape up Jerry - or the voters will ship you out!

It was good to see that the Greenville football fans are again supporting their school team. Several years ago Elba had more fans at the game in Greenville than the home team itself had. This year they filled their stands and most Elba folks stayed home. Probably the even longer trip to Eufaula will scare off the Elba fans again, but if everyone will be patient, Elba will return home to play Troy sooner or later.

Pilot Club Meets

The Pilot Club of Elba met for its regular business meeting on Oct. 9, 1975. The meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Art (Sibley) Stivers. Thirteen members enjoyed a delicious covered dish supper prior to the business session.

Following the meal, Pres. Ann Beck called the meeting to order and asked for reports from division coordinators. Gene Kennett gave the financial report, which included a report on the proceeds from the carnival. Miriam Bowers reported on the status of the Operation Santa Claus Project. She also announced that letters would be sent to other clubs within the next few weeks regarding nominations for "Man and Woman of the Year" to be selected in January.

Styler Stivers announced that the money saved on the dinner that night would be donated to the Rescue Squad, and discussed a Special Share Pilot program to be held at the Oct. 23rd meeting.

The club voted unanimously to invite a number of prospective members to the Oct. meeting. President Ann Beck read a letter from the Executive Secretary of Pilot International commending the club on its projects and plans for the year. The members agreed to buy Pilot pins individually and discussed several other matters of old and new business.

The members read the Pilot pledge in unison and the meeting was adjourned.

The next meeting of the Pilot Club will be at the Country Club at 7 p.m., Thursday, Oct. 23. This will be the Founder's Day meeting and all members are urged to attend.

It seems to me that the Federal government would be setting a dangerous precedent in bailing New York City out of its financial straits. Why should Alabama taxpayers be expected and required to pick up the tab for fiscal mismanagement by officials of the Nation's richest city?

New York's troubles are a frightening reminder of what can happen on a National scale as well as at the local level unless we return to a policy of fiscal responsibility and a balanced budget.

The city employs nearly one worker for every 22 residents at an average salary of $13,000 a year each, compared to an industry wage average of $10,000 per employee. City workers form pressure groups which have proved capable of crippling and willing to cripple the city in order to gain an ever-higher wage scale. Because of their generous pension plan, which is costly to the city, many of New York's municipal employees can retire at full pay after only 20 years of work.

ty welfare departments and college financial aid offices. This food stamp use on our nation's campuses continues to soar.

Obviously, work and income reporting requirements must be tightened and cross-checking must be implemented to stop student abuses of this program. But the real question is: Why should blue-collar high school graduates have to support with their taxes persons who have voluntarily chosen to be unemployed for a given period of time to pursue a higher education? Should a WELFARE system be designed to support such persons?

I think not.

I am fully aware of, and sympathetic with, the argument that young people should be encouraged to attend college and should be provided with every aid available to them in doing so. If there are children of poor families, or children who become dependent and cannot support themselves while going to college, we have a large number of scholarship, loan, grant, and work-study programs that are available to them. These should be the foundation of an educational support system, not a public assistance program designed to meet poor people's nutritional needs.

The time has come to recognize that food stamps must be reserved for the truly needy, not those who choose to further their education at the expense of a newly-discovered food stamp "scholarship" program.

AROUND ALABAMA RUBY

THE CANDY MAN! Sullivan Cooper was widely known around Montgomery as "The Candy Man." He derived his name because of his habit of visiting hospitals with candy for young patients and encouraging words, witty tales and passages from the Bible for adult patients.

This seemingly ageless man had nothing but kindness for his fellow man and an eternal song in his heart. He was the recent victim of an automobile accident and was reported to be about 85 years young.

One admirer said she just had to say something about Sullivan and concluded by observing, "I'm sure he'd say, 'Thank you 'Mama' for caring.'"

Senior Of The Week

Our featured senior is Belinda Bogar, and all who know her know she's a charming person with a real talent as a Rebel Rouser.

Belinda is the 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Berin Dwyer of Rt. 1, Jack. Meeting new people, reading and cheering are among Belinda's favorite pastimes. Her enjoyment in cheering is proven in the fact that she is an active Varsity cheerleader.

When asked about a pet peeve, Belinda has this to say: "I'm sure every teacher shows partiality but I wish the teachers would like you for what you are and not for your abilities in their class or because their pal likes you."

The thing Belinda likes most about our school is the close teacher-student relationship which seems to be the most popular answer we get to that question.

Improvement, Belinda's advice is for the teachers to stick together to help the students. And as for now, Belinda's future plans are not definite, but we feel whatever she decides she will put forth her greatest effort to achieve it.

Good luck, Belinda!

Farmers Reminded Of ASCS Deadline

Only a few days remain to nominate farmers as candidates in the upcoming ASCS community committee election, reminds H.D. Engfinger, County Executive Director.

First day of the newly elected community committee members will be to serve as delegates to elect new members to the county ASCS committee. Mr. Engfinger reminds producers that this is an important occasion for the responsible, farmer-chosen team of ASCS community committee members.

The ASCS community committee election will be conducted by mail from November 21 to December 1. By turning in a total of six or more petitions, farmers in each ASCS community have the opportunity to prepare the state of nominees themselves. Engfinger hopes that farmers will submit enough valid petitions to fill the state.

Shortly after October 28, all petitions will be reviewed. If six or more valid petitions have been received for an ASCS community, the county ASCS office will prepare a state containing the names of all eligible nominees. If less than six valid petitions are received for any ASCS community, the job of state completion will be turned over to the incumbent community committee, which will add nominees needed to complete the state.

The county ASCS committee will review all community petitions prior to the mail election and will advise all candidates of the duties of ASCS community committee members.

In order to submit a valid petition, three or more ASCS farm voters must sign a statement endorsing an eligible candidate. The statement must include certification that the nominee will serve if elected. Petitions must be dated and mailed or hand-delivered to the county ASCS office no later than October 28.

The opportunity to nominate, vote, and be elected to the county ASCS community committee election is guaranteed to all farmers regardless of race, religion, sex, color, or national origin.

Tom Casaday, County Extension Chairman
COUNTY EXTENSION COUNCIL

Roy Sims of Route One, Enterprise, reminded me this week of the upcoming Coffee County Extension Council meeting. Plans are being made for the annual fall meeting to be held on Thursday night, November 20. The Council will meet in the Multi-Purpose room of the Enterprise State Junior College. In addition to Sims as president, Mr. Horace Sessions is serving as Vice President and Mrs. Harrell Carroll as Secretary.

The Extension Council has been a great benefit to the county Extension Service in planning educational programs. For example, the peanut committee is made up of about 14 farmers with Frank Britt of the Mr. Pleasant community serving as chairman. The peanut committee has been active in letting us know the educational needs of Coffee County farmers.

Other committees include agri-business, beef cattle, corn and feed grains, dairy, family health, family living, forestry, hog, horticulture, peanut, poultry, soybeans, resource development and youth.

FIRE PREVENTION
Did you know that 12,000 people in the United States burned to death this past year? And did you know that the largest percentage of those dying were children, elderly people and invalids?

Charles Ogburn, one of our engineers at Auburn, said that the major cause of fires are smoking, electrical wiring and heating and cooking equipment. Ogburn points out that one way to avoid a deadly fire is to never smoke in bed and to have electrical wiring done by a professional. There are many other safety tips that families should know.

NEW BUSINESSES
I talked this week with Charles Cowen and Jim Dubose of the Curtis community in Coffee County. This past year these folks started the Curtis Feed Store on the property of Mr. John B. Johnson who for a number of years operated a feed, seed and fertilizer business.

CANCER DETECTION
Being a woman means taking care of yourself. And part of taking care of yourself includes getting a Pap test at least once a year. A Pap test is simple, painless and quick. It can detect cancer of the womb or uterus in the very early stages. When cancer is found early, it can be removed completely.

The Coffee County Health Departments are holding special Pap test clinics. Testing will be done at the Enterprise Health Department on Oct. 22 and 29 from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Testing will be done at the Elba Health Department on Nov. 7, 14 and 21 from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Make plans to get your Pap test at this clinic. Getting a Pap test is up to you. This clinic is free and is open to every woman in Coffee County.

SWEET POTATOES
Fall means cooler weather, falling leaves and sweet potatoes. Sweet potatoes, one of the South's main vegetable crops, are a good source of energy, protein, minerals, vitamins and vitamin C. And one medium sized sweet potato, contains about twice the recommended daily requirement of vitamin A.

Early sweet potatoes now on the market are uncurved and bruise more easily than those which are available in late fall. Sweet potatoes in small quantities and use them within a few days.

Prices are usually lower now than they will be later in the season. When buying, look for potatoes that are smooth, well-shaped and plump to avoid waste. Fresh, bright, dry and clean to avoid decay, and similar in color and shape to insure uniform cooking and color.

Bicentennial Spotlights
Henry Clay, statesman, studied law in Richmond, was admitted to the bar and practiced in Lexington, Ky. He filed an unsigned paper in the U.S. Senate, became speaker of the state legislature and filled another unsigned term in the Senate. While Congressman he was Speaker and was a leader of the "War Hawks." A Commissioner to negotiate peace with Great Britain, he urged recognition of South American republics by the U.S. and was influential in framing the Missouri Compromise. As a candidate for President he was 4th in the number of electoral votes, throwing his support to John Quincy Adams. He became Adams' Secretary of State. Senator and Clay was the Whig candidate for President, but was defeated by Jackson largely because of his support of the Second Bank of the U.S. His "American

Senior Of Week
Our first "Senior of the Week" for this year is Kathi Atherson. Kathi's guardians are Mr. and Mrs. Leo Henderson.

Kathi attends the Harris Temple Church of God in Christ and is very active in P.W.U., Pony Club, the Sewing Circle, and the Cursity Club.

Kathi's interests are in education, religion, and welfare. Her hobbies are different kinds of ball sports.

Kathi's pet peeve is for someone to hold something back from her that would be beneficial or harmful to her.

Kathi's subjects this year are Business Law, True Teacher's Aide, Bookkeeping, P.E. and Advanced Grammar. Her opinion of the school is "It is a nice place to attend for an education but it could use some modernizing." For improvements in the school, she would like to see some modernization of the student body and of the teachers.

After graduation she plans to attend Troy State University where she will major in Ecology.

Best of luck in the future to a fine student at E.H.S.

1975 UNICEF Halloween Campaign
Special plans were announced October 16 for the youngsters of Elba to join millions of American boys and girls in commemorating National UNICEF Day. This fall, in a 25th Anniversary celebration of Trick or Treat for UNICEF.

Under the auspices of the Elba High School Student Council, UNICEF Trick or Treaters will visit homes in small supervised groups. Instead of candy and apples for themselves, they will be asking for pennies and nickels, dimes and quarters to bring help and hope to needy children in Asia, Africa, and Latin America.

"I can't imagine a better way for our youngsters to learn about international understanding than by serving a truly worthwhile cause," Mr. Mack King, sponsor of the Student Council, said. "Literally hundreds of millions of children are threatened with malnutrition, starvation and disease in the developing world. They need all the help we can possibly spare."

No contribution will be too large or too small, he stressed. The occasion of the 25th Anniversary should spur us on to help as much as we can. The important thing is to open your door to the Trick or Treaters and your heart to the world's children. Just 2¢ can buy a pencil or an eraser for a school child or teacher's use. Just 3¢ can provide 3 high-dose Vitamin A capsules, enough to protect one little child against nutritionally-caused blindness for an entire year.

One dollar can deliver enough high protein food to feed 3 hungry malnourished children for a month. Five dollars can stock a pond with baby fish to supply baby fish to supply protein to a rural village.

There are hundreds of millions of reasons for the Student Council's hard work and persistence. Each one is child. This gesture by American children and the adults who contribute, stretches across the oceans and the continents and can mean the difference between a child's hope and a child's despair, blindness or sight, life or death.

Whatever you give, even if it seems only a little, can mean that much more help for the future," as the late President Kennedy once said. It can also mean much more goodwill and peace in the world, hope and friendship in years ahead.

Because of inflation, UNICEF is now paying from 20 percent to 100 percent more than last year for most of the items it supplies, but a little still goes a long way.

Since a Sunday School class in Pennsylvania started the ball rolling 25 years ago by collecting $17 for the world's children, Halloween and United Nations Children Fund have become virtually synonymous in the United States.

During the past seven years, the annual Halloween collection for UNICEF assisted child welfare programs has not fallen once below $3 million, and over-all total has climbed to more than $46 million.

"We could more than ever this year on increased support and understanding from adults," Mr. King says. "The children seem to understand just naturally."

SILENT CRY
BY JANIS DONALDSON

The world does pine in the silent night you can hear her white
For her lost, her loved, herself
She, who once was told in a great story
Has now been stripped of all her glory
And is now filled with the rage
The world has lost, on the ramparts, consuming whom it may Giving no thought to the night or day
Yet she was once a goddess
But now she is a lot less than a place to abide
With no way to hide her nakedness
The world does pine in the silent night you can hear her white
For her lost, her loved, herself.

The Pastor's Corner
REV. EDWARD D. HENNE
ELBA FIRST UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

It is usually very interesting to read a biography of a person who has become great, or perhaps infamous, we can read the details of his upbringing, and even of his ancestry, and find many influences which molded him into what he was. We can also see how he reacted in certain situations, and how often rose above the bad deal which heredity and environment had dealt him. An autobiography is often even more interesting than a biography of a person who stands outside and views the person in a detached manner. But what it may lack in true objectivity, it makes up in intimacy. A person recounting his own life can share his thoughts and feelings. We know not only what happens to him, but in three measure how he feels about the experiences of life.

In Jesus we see the autobiography of God. The Bible doesn't waste time discussing whether there is a God or not. It begins by saying, "In the beginning God." But the Bible is intricately involved with the question, "What is God like?" All through the Old Testament we see men searching for an understanding of God's nature and will for man. Then when Jesus was about to be crucified, (John 14:8-9) Philip asked, "Show us the Father and we will be satisfied." Jesus replied, in effect, "He who has seen me has seen the Father. If you would know what God is like, if you would understand the power behind all things, then take a long look at me." Jesus then presented, not a book, but in his life, death, and resurrection, a perfect autobiography of God. It is perfect in its intimacy, and since it is the work of God rather than man, is also perfect in its accuracy and objectivity.

In this human autobiography of God we see the true character of God. Jesus was noteworthy in his attention to the individual. Although crowds often thronged about him, he was aware of individuals, even a woman who touched the hem of his robe in a crowd. He showed love to all. He poured out his love on those who deserved it least. The woman in Samaria who was living in sin, the leprosy patient, and the condemned criminal on the cross. He reassured us that God is love. It is love that reaches to every individual, the least, last, and lost. And Jesus' love never quits. He wept over the city of Jerusalem because it was full of religious hypocrites who opposed God's son. He prayed on the cross that his murderers might be forgiven. And he assures us that God never quits loving us, no matter what we may be or do. In this living autobiography called Jesus, we see the purpose of God. A man can endure anything if he believes there is a purpose to life. If he expects a place of light at the end of the dark tunnel through which he gropes. The suicides and insanity of our own time are largely the result of having given up any hope or sense of purpose in life. But Jesus is the articulated word of God. He is God's spoken and dramatized promise that there is a purpose and sense and hope to life. He is the perfect man, showing what God intends for us to be. He was our pattern for love, unselfishness, and kindness. More than this, He reveals us to become sons and daughters of God, and gives us the glorious power to become. He challenges us to strive to attain perfection, that one day we might be able to stand in God's presence. Jesus is our example, living as God would have us live. You may say that he received crucifixion for his trouble. But I reply that all men must die. Even his death was purposeful, and his death was swallowed up in victory, for he rose again. And this shows God's final purpose for us, that we might live forever with him. In this autobiography called Jesus we also see the method of God. Have you ever wondered who you would do if you were God? I would probably throw my weight around, zap people and making them do as I wished. But this is not what God does. His nature is love, and love never throws its weight around. God approaches man, not with a thunderbolt or a mailed fist, but with a humble plea of love. He knocks at our doors rather than knocking them down, because he wants servants, not slaves. He uses persuasion, not coercion. He presents himself as a knight on a white horse, but as a Carpenter from Nazareth, and the question remains ultimate for each of us: What shall I do then with Jesus who is called the Christ? Jesus is the living autobiography of the God who loves us, who saves, and who preserves us. In Jesus we see the character of God, the earnest desire of God for our loving response. God grants that we might accept Jesus, and serve him, knowing that our God is a Christian God.

Solar energy and nuclear fusion appear to be promising solutions to our long-term needs, but their feasibility has not been demonstrated. In the next 20 to 30 years, coal and nuclear power are our most practical resources.

Because nuclear power is cheaper than coal, it will help hold down energy costs.

Marching Tigers Win Honors

Last Saturday morning at 7:00 a.m. the Marching Tigers departed from Elba to attend the Gulf Coast Marching Contest in Gulfport, Mississippi. The band was entered in Class A, and performed at about 5:00 that afternoon before a large responsive audience. Many weeks of dedication and preparation proved to be well worthwhile when the ratings were finally received later in the evening. The results were:

Band - 1
Majorities - 1
Drum Major - 1
Drum Corp. - 2

After the contest the band went to Hattiesburg, Mississippi, to spend the night. After a relatively short night, the Marching Tigers ate dinner, compliments of the Band Booster Club. After dinner, they went to the campus of the University of Southern Mississippi where they had a worship service organized by some of the students. The band had several faculty members from the College of Fine Arts, including Dr. Joe Barry Mullins, Director of Bands. Dr. Mullins presented the drum major, Pam Blackworth, with two recordings of the University Symphonic for the band's music library. The band returned to Elba at 7:00 Sunday evening to a very receptive crowd of parents and friends. "It was a very enjoyable trip. The band students conducted themselves extremely well throughout the trip, and were fine representatives of Elba," said Director Bob Lump. The Marching Tigers will travel to Ft. Walton Beach this Saturday, October 25, to attend the Miracle Strip Marching Band Festival. Elba is entered in Class A, which begins at 6:00 p.m.

ALABAMA STATE HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT

The first colored bridge in Alabama will be on display with the opening of the Tascaloosa Bypass this Spring. The two lane overpass has been sprayed pale gold with a dark green structure. If Alabamians have a favorable attitude toward the bridge, then other new bridges in Alabama may be sprayed with various pastel colors to blend with the environment, and to break the monotony of highway driving for State motorists. Tascaloosa Area Division Engineer, Bob Joe Demp, who first decided to have the bridge sprayed gold, said the Highway Department has previously sprayed new bridges with artificial surface material to fill in pit marks and provide a smooth surface on concrete bridges. The mix has only recently been made available in colors at no extra cost, Kemp said.

County Conservationists Honored

Coffee County Soil Conservation Service Personnel, William Hughes, Bill Faulk and Jimmy Clark were recognized for outstanding service to the people of Coffee County during three disasters in 1975.

The United States Department of Agriculture Certificate of Merit and Cash Award was presented by Area Conservationist, C. H. Harper. The citation stated for outstanding accomplishments in assisting landusers, groups, and units of government during a wide variety of flood conditions from the period of February 16-17, 1975, and April 9-10, 1975, through team work and dedicated efforts over and above normally expected of service personnel.

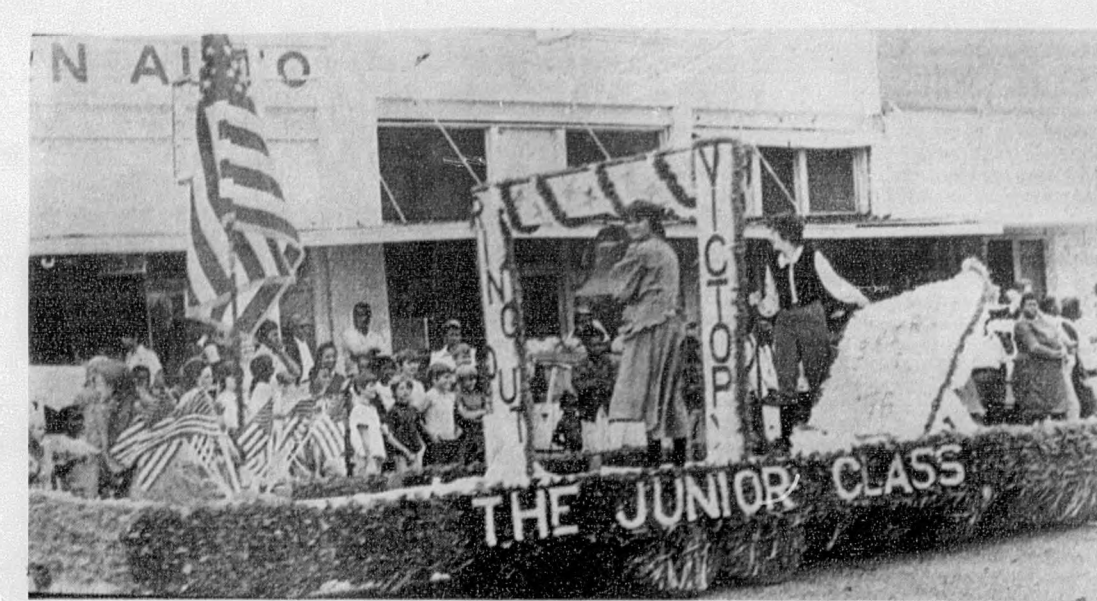

On February 16 & 17, a 100 year flood occurred in the northeast part of the County. On April 9 & 10 another 80 mile long storm, even more severe than the first one, hovered over the area and dropped within a 24 hour period with 17 inches of rainfall in the eye of the storm near Enterprise. This caused tremendous damages to roads and croplands. On September 23, Hurricane Eloise moved across the area with 100 miles per hour winds causing unprecedented damages to crop, houses and woodland.

Messrs. Hughes, Faulk and Clark effectively used all programs to assist landusers smooth out the land, repair terraces, waterways and farm ponds. The extra effort enabled farmers to recover and repair the land damages and produce a good crop.

Gamecocks Fall To Long 30-0

The New Brockton Gamecocks held their first football homecoming ever last Friday night, but there was little to celebrate, as they lost to the Long Rebels, 30-0. The loss gives the Gamecocks a 0-8 record, while the win gives Long a 3-5 chart. The Gamecock defense played a fired-up first half, and held the highly-favored Rebels to only eight points through the opening two quarters. The Long tally came on a one-yard plunge by Jerry Watson. Long's second touchdown came when the Rebels blocked a Gamecock punt in the endzone, and Long's Ricky Herling recovered for the score. The Gamecocks' leading rusher was Frank Smith, who gained 70 yards in 12 carries. Leading the way on defense were Dennis Maudin, Joey Stuckey, Tim Calloway, Doug Hollis and Gary Anderson.

VIEWS FROM THE PRESSBOX

TIGERS WIN AGAIN

The Elba Tigers have battled back from their slow start to win three straight games, and improve their record to 4-3. Last week's 20-0 win over Greenville wasn't one of the first-played games I've ever witnessed, but it had to be one of the most exciting.

The Elba offense unit moved the ball at will against Greenville. What seemed to get a case of amnesia every time they got inside the Greenville 20-yard line. If the Tigers can cut out their sloppy ball-handling, they can prove to be a real challenge to anybody they play, including Andalusia!

Larry Phillips and James Smith really looked good running the ball last week. Larry had his finest performance since his 200-yard outburst against Florida. Larry showed some fancy footwork at times, and at other times showed his power by dragging the bigger Greenville defenders with him on short gains.

James appears to be finally coming around after being somewhat of a mystery man. It was obvious that James had the talent from the start, and now it appears he's ready to grab some headlines.

Max Fuller threw the ball well last week despite the dampness of the ball. Maybe he'll put it all together this week. Lathan Tillis, James Smith and David Smith all looked good at linebacker. The trio combined for 10 tackles and 16 assists while shutting out Greenville.

If the Elba defense will improve along with the rest of the team, the Tiger defense could give Elba fans lots of headlines.

PREP ROUND-UP

Zion Chapel lost their second straight home game last week in falling to Wicksburg, 28-6. The loss drops the Rebels' record to 4-3, and the Rebels' season is far from over.

New Brockton and Kinston kept their perfect records intact by losing to Long, 30-0, and Brantley, 55-8. The two schools should meet in a real "burn-burner" on October 30 in New Brockton. Winner takes all.

Altmore wrapped up another trip to the playoffs by whipping Monroe County, 28-15. The Blue Devils are ready to defend their 3A title.

Andalusia continued to blitz all opponents by rolling over Ozark, 41-0. The Bulldogs continue to tune up for their battle with Geneva.

Enterprise pulled a shocker by edging Carver, 14-6. The Wildcats have a chance to go to the playoffs, but they must get by Dothan in their season finale.

Geneva took over the SAC lead by dropping Opp, 16-14. The Panthers are 4-0 in SAC play, with Andalusia the only stopping stone left between them and a SAC title.

Dozier, which is headed to State, remained unbeaten by routing Ramer 46-12. The Bulldogs should represent the area well.

OFF THE RECORD

Lenoir Rhyne College set a new NCAA record on October 10 when they rolled to 714 total yards in beating Davidson, 67-14. For many teams 714 yards would be a good season!

I went to Opp Saturday night to see Brantley and Kinston play, and had quite an enjoyable trip. Brantley had the best-looking group of cheerleaders I've ever seen. Their group looked good from one end to the other. They cheered pretty good, too.

Marvin McCollough had quite a day at the pool hall last Tuesday. It seems that Champ played for 3-1/2 hours straight, and only lost once. Maybe the ole left is learning which ball is the cue-ball, and which ones are supposed to go in the pockets!

PREP PICKINS

The crystal ball hit on 24 of 30 last week for a solid 80%. I hope the reception stays clear throughout the remainder of the season!

ELBA-EUFALA A battle of the Tigers. Both teams have 4-3 records, and are similar in style. Elba will chalk up their 4th straight win. Elba 27 - Eufala 24.

ZION CHAPEL-KINSTON The Rebels celebrate homecoming against the Jewly Bulldogs. ZC should have a lot to cheer about: Zion Chapel 32 - Kinston 16.

COFFEE SPRINGS-NEW BROCKTON The Bears won a big one last week over Arton. They should defeat the Gamecocks without much trouble! Coffee Springs 38 - New Brockton 6.

ENTERPRISE-LEE The Wildcats will find the Generals quite a bit tougher than Carver. Lee will drop the Cats! Lee 14 - Enterprise 7.

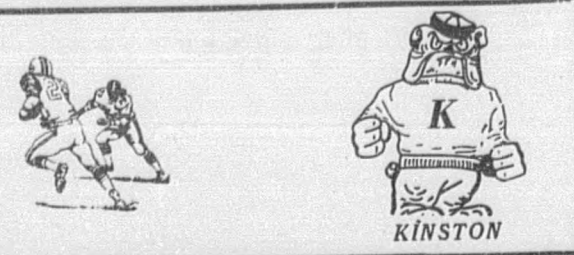

OPP-ASHFORD The Bobcats should be smarting after last week's loss to Geneva. However, Ashford will prove too strong! Ashford 27 - Opp 16.

Scouting Report Rat Picks Who??

The Elba Tigers put their three-game winning streak on the line this week when they travel to Eufala to take the Eufala Tigers.

Eufala, like Elba, have had an up and down season, and own a 4-3 record. The Tigers' wins came over Troy, Ozark, Valley and Chavala, while the losses came to Opp, Geneva and Smith Station.

In a recent telephone interview with Eufala coach Ed Comer, the Tigers' head coach had nothing but the highest praise for Elba.

"Elba has got a real good team," said Comer, "and if it wasn't for some bad breaks, they could easily be 6-1 instead of 4-3."

"The Tigers have two outstanding running backs in Larry Phillips and James Smith," added Comer, "and Fuller throws the ball real well, especially to the Lewis kid."

Comer was then asked to comment on his Eufala team. "We're having a rough year," said Comer, "We've only got 20 boys out for football, but they just couldn't fill the holes left from last year."

Comer reported that the Eufala offense returns three linemen and three backs from last year's 8-3 team, but that injuries have hampered their play.

"Ronald Hines is our key running back," said Comer, "but he has had knee trouble all season, and he hasn't had the year we were hoping for."

Comer said that the keys to beating Elba was to keep the ball away from their offense.

The Elba Tigers rolled to their third straight victory by thrashing Greenville in a fun-bale-married contest. Elba's brilliant sophomore combo of Larry Phillips and James Smith gave Greenville a lesson in how to run the football. The key to Elba's resurgence seems to be running of Smith. In the first four games he ran the ball sparingly, but the last three he has combined with Larry Phillips to give Elba an effective one-two running attack. James has shown great strength to go along with his blazing speed.

In a recent interview with Elba coach Hinton Johns, the Tiger mentor gave the following scouting report of Eufala.

"Offensively," said Johns, "they use a 'split-4' and a 'split backfield.' They have two good running backs in Willie Wilson and Ronald Hines, and their quarterback throws the ball well. They run a lot of power plays, and simply try to run right over you."

Johns added that the Eufala offensive line is much bigger than Elba's defensive line, and that the defensive line must rise to the occasion.

"Defensively," said Johns, "they use a 'split-4' and a '5-2.' Eufala has got a real good defensive unit. They run a lot of power plays, and simply try to run right over you."

Johns added that "Elba is much better than their 4-3 record indicates. They have played a tough schedule, and for us to win, our defense must play as well as they possibly can."

This is the biggest game our defense has faced all year," warned Johns. "In closing, Johns said, 'It will be a real tough game, and for us to win, our defense must play as well as they possibly can.'"

My ole crystal ball overheated last week after hitting 85 percent on my picks. While it's being repaired, I borrowed Cousin "Mole's" old ball. It's and zero record Samson look to run out other peoples' homecoming, as Elba fans remember. Not this time.

The game of the week is undefeated Franklin-Marshall and Widener State. Franklin has had little trouble so far, and is coming off a big 36-8 win over Troy.

Coach Johns feels that the key to beating Eufala is "how well our defense can contain their offensive attack."

The Elba offense was led by sophomore backs Larry Phillips and James Smith. Phillips gained 161 yards in 21 carries, while Smith added 120 yards in 12 carries.

Phillips picked off an errant punt. The punt carried into the endzone, and Elba put the ball in play at the Greenville 47.

The Tigers gave the ball right back to Greenville, however, when Greenville's Kenneth Raines picked off a Fuller aerial and raced to the Elba 22 yardline.

Greenville again kept the ball only one play before they fumbled the ball to the Tigers. The two fumbled-plagued units swapped punts on their next possession, with Elba ending up with the ball on the Tiger 41-yardline.

On the first play James Smith appeared stopped in the middle, but the "sophomore speedster" broke outside and raced 55-yards to the Greenville 3-yardline.

Three plays later, Larry Phillips added two yards, ending up to put Elba ahead 12-0. Russ Cash added the point after, and with 1:54 left in the game Elba led 13-0.

Greenville received the ensuing kick, and were forced to put the ball in the air. On the third play, Greenville quarterback Chuck Tillis' aerial was picked off by David Smith, who turned up the sideline and rambled 33-yards for a touchdown. Cash again added the p.a.t., and the Elba lead was up to 20-0 with only 5:51 left in the game.

Greenville simply ran out the clock, and when the horn sounded Elba had the win, 20-0.

After receiving the second half kick Elba again got their offense in gear, but were again stopped by a fumble, this time at the Greenville 10-yardline.

The Tigers kept the ball only three plays before David Smith was called on to punt. Smith's punt was partially blocked by Greenville, and the ball carried only 5-yards before rolling out of bounds.

Greenville did manage to hold on to the ball on their next possession, but after making two first-downs were forced to punt.

The Tigers kept the ball only three plays before David Smith was called on to punt. Smith's punt was partially blocked by Greenville, and the ball carried only 5-yards before rolling out of bounds.

Greenville did manage to hold on to the ball on their next possession, but after making two first-downs were forced to punt.

OZARK STAGE JAMBOREE

Arts, Crafts, Antiques, and fun will be the main attractions at the upcoming Ozark Stage Jamboree to be held on the Square in Ozark from 4 to 5 October 31 and November 1.

The Jamboree is a Dale County Bicentennial Event sponsored by the Dale County Council of the Arts and Humanities, The Ozark-Dale County Chamber of Commerce, Alabama State Council of the Arts and Humanities, and the National Endowment of the Arts.

Any artist or craftsman offering his works or other objects of general artistic interest is eligible to participate and should contact the Chamber of Commerce, P.O. Box 490, Ozark, AL 36350, Phone: 205-774-3221, as soon as possible.

In addition to a fine selection of art work, participants can purchase hotdogs, cake, fudge, spiced tea, and other epicurean delights at various booths sponsored by the civic clubs of Ozark. Entertainment will also be in abundance as the students of Lola's Dance Studio will perform as well as the well known Heel and Toe Square Dancers of Ft. Rucker.

A dog show should prove to be a major attraction for the children who are encouraged to participate in a Halloween Costume Contest and parade. The evening hours will be highlighted by the Kiwanis sponsored Clyde Beatty-Cole Brothers Circus on Nov. 1st.

Various local merchants plan special Jamboree sales so there will be plenty of entertainment value, and just plain old fun to be had at the Claybank Jamboree.

FEDERAL GRANT

A Federal grant in the amount of $97,000 was approved recently for the State of Alabama by David Caldwell, Director of the Alabama U.S. Civil Service Commission. The purpose of this grant is to finance a major reorganization of the Executive Branch of Alabama State Government.

These grant funds will provide funds for the reorganization of the State government. The primary aim of the project is to replace Alabama's 140 commissions, boards, agencies, and departments with five major governmental units.

Another provision of the Intergovernmental Personnel Act, personnel mobility, eases the way for government officials to move back and forth on temporary assignments between the Federal government and State or local government or institutions of higher education. Three Federal officials are currently on such assignments in Alabama, and one official from the State is on such an assignment with the Federal government.

In addition to grants and personnel mobility, the Act provides for the admission of State and local employees to Federal training courses, research, and development directed toward the improvement of personnel management systems, and technical assistance in a wide range of personnel services.

Foundation Grant Announced

During recent ceremonies at Auburn University, the Alabama Press Association (APA) Journalism Foundation made the first of two grants to the University for the creation of the "Alabama Press Association Room" in the Ralph Brown Draughn Library on the Auburn campus.

The APA Journalism Foundation, a non-profit foundation that makes grants to educational institutions to further journalism education in Alabama, presented a check for $2,500 to Auburn President Dr. Harry M. Philpott.

An additional grant of $2,500 will be presented to Auburn early next year for a total grant of $5,000. That money will be matched by the University and the total of $10,000 will be used to complete the "Alabama Press Association Room."

The APA Room will be utilized by Auburn journalism students as a reading room and will be initially stocked with local as well as national newspapers. Long-range plans call for journalism-related reference materials to be located in the room for use by faculty and students. Auburn currently has no such journalism-related facility.

One feature of the new facility will be the location in the room of the Alabama Press Association / Auburn University "Newspaper Hall of Honor." The "Newspaper Hall of Honor" is currently located in the Ralph Brown Draughn Library, and has been established each year since 1959 to outstanding Alabama newspaper journalists.

Guard Assisting In Operation Santa Claus

The local National Guard in Coffee County is assisting Seary Hospital this year in its annual Operation Santa Claus which provides Christmas gifts for the hospital's patients.

In Montgomery, Major General Charles Rollo, Adjutant General, State of Alabama, has offered the use of the National Guard for the hospital's twenty-county catchment area as one of the collection points in such community projects for donations of gifts from the area.

The National Guard also will be provided for gifts to Operation Santa Claus when it is inconvenient for the donors to deliver them to the hospital.

"The Alabama National Guard is always willing to support and participate in worthwhile programs such as Operation Santa Claus," General Rollo said.

Items may be taken to the Elba National Guard Army on the Brantley Highway.

Also, the hospital is without an Operation Santa Claus chairman in the county, and is urging an individual or organization to volunteer to head the campaign.

"We promise to do most of the work," assured Public Information and Volunteer Services director Arthur Capell. "But we are in dire need of someone in the county to coordinate the effort."

Workshop Re-Scheduled At ESJC

Handloading ammunition, a two-hour workshop for hunters cancelled due to hurricane Tili, has been rescheduled for Tuesday, October 28, 1975 at Enterprise State Junior College.

Reid Lambert, evening director, said the session will meet from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Charles Gibson, maintenance engineer at ESJC, will instruct the course.

Gibson said that participants will examine metallic cartridges and shotgun shells for details on primers, casing, wad, shot, etc. The use of loading tables and various ammunition loading tools will be demonstrated during the session.

A fee of $2 will be charged. Preregister, call 347-2523.

Holley Again To Introduce Courthouse Salary Bill

Representative Jimmy Holley called a press conference Tuesday morning at the Farm Center in New Brockton to assess the regular session of the Legislature just completed, and to answer questions from the news media.

Attending the conference were The Elba Clipper, The Daily Ledger of Enterprise, WJHG and WJAX, both radio stations in Enterprise.

Holley first discussed the three local bills that passed and became law. FIRST was a bill allowing fishing with baskets in Pea River for non game fish. This allows the baskets with license and tags on the baskets. SECOND was an increase in the expense allowance of the Deputy District Attorney. THIRD was a bill to repeal a bill passed in the last session. It pertained to newspapers and was passed the first time to help Forest Ranger Gordon Drewey joined the Elba Police at the scene to insure the fire didn't spread to the nearby woods.

The Dorsey Corporation today announced that its earnings for the nine months ended September 30, 1975, amounted to $1,537,000 or $4.49 per share which were 26% ahead of the $3.29 per share reported last year. Sales were $114,244,000 compared to $120,634,000 for the comparable period in 1974.

Earnings for the latest 3 month period of $762,000 or $2.25 per share were more than double the $11 per share reported last year. Sales for this period of $42,799,000 were slightly ahead of last year's record $41,761,000.

The Dorsey Corporation is a leading producer of glass and plastic containers and cargo trailers with 19 plants located in 13 states.

The salary for the Probate Judge will start at $23,000, half way between what the two Senators had compromised to during the last session. The Judge would get a $500 a year raise for four years, bringing the salary up to a total of $25,000. Holley said all four of the current office holders were in agreement on this bill and he felt we had operated with a fee system entirely too long. He said the rush was to allow people running for office next spring to know what they would be making if they took the office.

"FOURTH was a companion bill to allow the county to pay the clerk in these four offices. Currently the office holder pays most of the clerk's fees.

Holley was bordering on criticism of Senator Foshee and/or Senator Perry when he discussed the last two bills that failed in the Senate. He said with a smile that the "hotly contested" bill to re-name East Davis Street in Elba as Cornelia Wallace Drive failed in the Senate. The bill had been introduced at the request of the Elba City Council. The other bill was one correcting an oversight by a previous Legislature. It was a population bill introduced in the 1951 legislature to allow Coffee County to have two coroners. The bill should have been updated after the last census but was not. Coffee County is still paying two coroners but Holley just wanted to make it legal. Again he remarked about the "hotly contested" bill when he said it died in the Senate.

Holley closed by telling of four items in the general budget that affected his district.

Police Warn Parents Of Halloween Tricks

Elba Police Chief Johnston issued a warning to parents of children going trick-or-treating. Johnston said that every year there are reports of bad candy and fruit being given to children. He urged that if children insist on continuing the practice, parents should limit them to homes where the occupants are known and trusted. Even then said Johnston, "Know where the candy your child is eating, come from piece by piece."
